

AREA EX MIRA LANZA - MOLINI BIONDI

M. PRIEST, T. SCHERMAN, B. SHIM, H. SUTCLIFFE

Drawing by Margaret Priest, The Reflecting Pool II, 1990, of a Garden Pavilion and Reflecting Pool designed by Brigitte Shim and Howard Sutcliffe.

MARGARET PRIEST

Margaret Priest is an artist, trained in England and now living and working in Toronto. As well as exhibiting her work internationally, she has shown at many solo and group exhibitions in Canada. She is currently a Professor in the Department of Fine Arts at the University of Guelph. Margaret Priest along with Tony Scherman was recently part of a winning team of architects, landscape architects and fine artists that received first place in a competition to design and an urban park in downtown Toronto.

TONY SCHERMAN

Tony Scherman is an artist living and working in Toronto. He has been showing his paintings in both international and Canadian solo and group shows since 1979. He is currently an Adjunct Assistant Professor at the University of Toronto School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture and has been an invited guest critic at Princeton University, Department of Architecture as well as the University of Waterloo, School of Architecture.

BRIGITTE SHIM

Brigitte Shim is a partner in a design practise which is interested in the relationship between furniture, architecture and landscape. In collaboration with Howard Sutcliffe, their recent projects have been published internationally and nationally in «Domus», «Architecture D'Aujourd'hui», «Arquitectura Viva» and «ARQ». She is currently an assistant professor at the University of Toronto School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture.

HOWARD SUTCLIFFE

Howard Sutcliffe was part of a design team at Kuwabara Payne McKenna Blumberg Architects, Toronto that recently won the national competition to design a City Hall for Kitchener, Ontario. After graduating from the University of Waterloo, School of Architecture, he has worked for Ronald Thom, Barton Myers and Kuwabara Payne McKenna Blumberg on many competitions and design projects. Howard Sutcliffe has produced several smaller scaled furniture, architecture and landscape related project in collaboration with Brigitte Shim which received international recognition.

