OMAGGIO A GIUSEPPE PANZA DI BIUMO. LA PASSIONE DELLA COLLEZIONE

Friday 30th and Sunday 31st are the two last days to visit the exhibition *Omaggio a GIUSEPPE PANZA DI BIUMO. La passione della collezione – curated by Nicoletta Cardano and Francesco Moschini, a selected collection of the masterpieces by Franz K Franz Kline, Richard Nonas, Joseph Kossuth, Lawrence Carroll, Lies Kraal and Stuart Arends, forming a part of the Panza's Collection.

January, 29th - 5 pm – Conversazioni intorno a Giuseppe Panza di Biumo, a lecture about the collector delivered by Lawrence Carroll, Caterina Bon Valsassina and Francesco Tedeschi.

The lecture is part of the cycle of initiatives organized by Nicoletta Cardano and Francesco Moschini, and which have been developed after the Conference Tributo a Panza di Biumo held on December, 11th, 2014.

The lecture will be delivered by Lawrence Carroll, member of Accademia di S. Luca and one of the most representative artists of Panza di Biumo's collection. The artist will talk about his relationship with the collector, who has been a fundamental actor in Carroll's artistic career at the beginning of the 90ties.

Carroll's works of art had been over time collected by Panza di Biumo: the collector has been inviting several times the artist to realize Site Specific works of art in Palazzo Ducale (Sassuolo): he let him experiencing the historical architectural space of Palazzo della Gran Guardia in Verona and Palazzo Ducale in Gubbio, sites of the exhibition curated by Caterina Bon Valsassina.

Francesco Tedeschi, (Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Milan) lecturer of Contemporary Art History will trace a panorama about the New York's avant-garde after World War II, in order to analyze Panza di Biumo's passion for the American Art and the collector's competence in understanding Abstract Expressionism and its developments as well.
